DRIVING NORTH

Head north on Interstate 95 from Boston. In Maine I-95 becomes the Maine Turnpike. You can also exit to I-295 north; I-295 and I-95 merge together south of Augusta. Stay on the Maine Turnpike to Exit 113 in Augusta (about 2 hours from the border of New Hampshire). Take Route 3 east to Belfast (48 miles).
If you take I-295 Northbound, it will be closed June 16, 2009 through the end of August. you will be routed onto the new I-295 Southbound via a temporary crossover at Topsham. Another crossover will connect you back to the northbound lanes in Gardiner

DRIVING SOUTH

Drive south on Interstate 95 from Canada, take Exit 45, heading East on I-395 in Bangor. Take the first exit ramp right onto the Route 202 bypass to Hampden. At the end of the bypass turn left onto Route 9, and at the light turn right onto Route 1A South. Route 1A ends at coastal US Route 1 in Stockton Springs. Traveling south will lead you through Searsport, Belfast, Northport, and Lincolnville Beach.

BY AIR
